Tortured by Conscience,
Eccentric Confesses to Killing Wife, Burning Body

By United Press.
AURORA, Ill., Jan. 14.—Beset by the constant torture of his conscience, Warren J. Lincoln, eccentric hordeurist and a distant kinsman of Abraham Lincoln, has at last sought refuge in a confession of murder to the police and willingness to face the gallows for killing his wife.

The crafty mind of the eccentric, which turned suspicion of murder from himself for a year could not tell the relentless pursuit of his own conscience. There was constantly before him during the 12 months this plea-ture, which in an alleged confession to the police last night, he painted in detail: There was a family meal before which he, his wife and her brother, Byron Shoup, were sitting at table. Lincoln supported his wife of trying to poison him and refused to drink his coffee. There was a general row during which his wife shot her brother. Lincoln killed his wife with a poker and then, after cutting the bodies of both to pieces, burned them in the heating plant of his greenhouse.

OWNERSHIP OF ORIENT PLANT TO BE TESTED

With a view to having the present ownership of the property of the Orient Coke Company judicially determined, a bill in equity has been filed in the courts of Fayette county by Attorney E. C. Hignee in behalf of E. L. Peabody and George P. Hoover against the Luzerne Coal & Coke Company and J. H. Hillman, Jr. In which action the court is requested to compel the defendants to recover the property to the American Coke Corporation and to declare the defendants trustees, instead of owners as they became when the property was awarded to them at sheriff's sale in December.

The bill alleges that J. H. Hillman, Jr., promised to return the property to the American Coke Corporation upon the payment, or security to pay, such sum of money as the defendants are entitled to recover.

The action grows out of the appointment of receivers last spring for the American Coke Corporation, the Oriental plant being one of the properties involved. After several attempts were made to dispose of the property at receiver's sale it was finally sold by Sheriff Shaw, Hillman being the successful bidder and holding on of a mortgage of $550,000 upon the property. His bid was $100,000. The mortgage was later assigned to the Luzerne Coal & Coke Company.

OBEEDIENCE TO LAW
BIGGEST PROBLEM OF PRESENT DAY

Declares Senator Willis at Opening Anti-Saloon League Meeting.

CAN BE NO MIDDLE GROUND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—"The biggest problem before the American people at the present moment is the question of obedience to law and respect for authority," said Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio, at Calvary Baptist Church in this city yesterday afternoon, at the opening of the Anti-Saloon League Annual Convention.

"There is too much prevalence of the idea that if a man does not like a law, he has a right to violate it with impunity. If one man has a right to pick out one law or constitutional amendment, which he proposes to violate, because it interferes with his desires; then every other man has the same right to pick out some other law or constitutional provision and amend to violate, because he does not like it.

"If everybody—the high and the low, the rich and the poor, could understand the hard fact that the man who willfully and knowingly violates a law or constitutional provision in classifying himself with criminals, there would be an end to such violations, because the American people are at heart, law-abiding.

"Anarchy feeds upon anarchy, and lawlessness begets lawlessness. The business man or banker who transacts business with a bootlegger in his back office has no right to complain if a bandit comes into the front office, shoots the cashier and carries off the money. The criminal transaction in the back office encourages similar action in the front office.

"On this question of obedience to law, there can be no middle ground; either we shall stand by the law and the constitution and thus be on the side of orderly government, or else our influence will be cast in favor of lawlessness and the breaking down of constitutional authority.

"It is but fair to say that the common people of the country are obeying the law fairly well. The chief violators are those in supposedly higher situations, who think they have license to override the law. Persons of wealth who thus appear to orderly government will be the ones to suffer most if constitutional authority breaks down. Employees of labor ought to understand that they cannot very well or contentedly maintain a dry ship and a wet office."

FRENCH FRANC
DROPS TO 23
TO DOLLAR

PARIS, Jan. 14.—Paris conditions existed on the Paris bourse this afternoon as the French franc fell further and faster than ever before, touching 23 to the American dollar before the close.

MOUNT PLEASANT MAN MISSING SIX YEARS ARRESTED

GREENSBURG, Jan. 14.—The long arm of the law, after waiting six years, has at last been rewarded for its patience in the case of Clarence Huffman, 35 years old, of Mount Pleasant, who was brought to the county jail Saturday by M. F. McCullough, assistant county detective, on a bench warrant issued from the clerk of courts office on a charge of larceny.

According to the story of Huffman's disappearance, which occurred June 26, 1918, when he escaped from Robert H. Smith, police chief of Mount Pleasant while the latter was detaining him to jail for the theft of an automobile belonging to the prisoner's father, William Huffman, the fugitive has spent two years in the Eastern Penitentiary on a similar charge of which he was convicted.

Fines of $500 Imposed After Raid on House

In the statement made to Chief of Police P. M. Murphy the two Uniontown girls admitted having been there several days and nights sleeping there. They said they cooked food which was furnished by Lathrop. They implicated the two local youths whom they said visited them.
The statement of Bernadine McMahon set forth that recently she missed the last car home from a dance and when she arrived there later in an automobile her father would not let her in. Since she had been at a hotel in company with Mrs. Velt. Both girls said they went to Lathrop's to get something to eat and had been there only a short time when the police arrived.

FRIDAY, MAY 16, SELECTED

IS DATE FOR JUNIOR PROM
The Junior Reception Committee has selected Friday evening May 16 as the date for the annual Junior prom at the State Armory. The committee is composed of Miss Louise Solson, Miss Margaret Kiesel, Miss Carrie Jane Marietta, Miss Dorothy Porter, Miss Edith Hoffman, Van Mastetta, J. D. Brown, Paul C. Leopol, Schuller and James O'Hara.

They would not consent to his proposals. This morning denied and declared his intention of appealing the fine of $100 imposed by Mayor C. C. Mitchell.

The Uniontown girls both minors are being held for their parents. They told of their life at Lathrop's home testifying to the fact that he operated a disorderly house. Although Lathrop pleaded not guilty to the charge Mayor Mitchell sentenced him on the testimony of the girls.

"I wish I could give you $5,000 or 10 years the mayor declared. You are not fit to live in Connellsville and I would like to run you out. The only reason this case is not going to court is because it would require these two young girls sitting as witnesses in their own town. Nevertheless that matter still remains in the hands of their parents and they can do as they see fit."

The mayor gave Lathrop the limit—$100 fine or 90 days to jail. He was greatly disappointed to find that he did not have the power of more severe punishment in his hands. Lathrop is not living with his wife. He said they could not agree and that she is in Johnston.

Tennant was fined on two charges one being a visitor at a disorderly house and the other for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor. A bottle of moonshine being found on him. Fines of $100 were imposed for each charge.

Carl Raymond pleaded guilty to being a visitor to a disorderly house and was also sentenced to pay $100 or spend 90 days in jail.

Jones, the colored man, claimed he called at the house to collect some money Lathrop owed him. He was sentenced to pay $50 or take 60 days to jail.

INCOME TAX IN NUTSHELL

WHO? Single persons who had net income of $1,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net income of $2,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more must file returns.

WHERE? The filing period is from January 1 to March 15, 1924.

WHERE? Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the person lives or has his principal place of business.

HOW? Instructions on Form 1040A and Form 1040; also the law and regulations.

WHAT? Four per cent normal tax on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption and credits for dependents. Eight per cent normal tax on balance of net income. Surplus from 1 per cent to 60 per cent on net incomes over $5,000 for the year 1923.

TIPS FOR TAXPAYERS

No. 11.
To determine his net income a taxpayer must first compute his gross income. Regardless of the amount of net income, upon which the tax is assessed, a return is required of every individual whose gross income for 1923 was $5,000 or more. Gross income includes salaries, wages, and compensation for personal services rendered, and gains, profits, and income from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, sales, or dealings in property real or personal, or the transaction of any business carried on for profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever. Net income is gross income less certain specified deductions for business expenses, losses, bad debts, contributions, etc.

Taxpayers may be divided into four general classes—the wage earner or salaried class, business, professional, and agricultural. All compensation for personal services rendered by a salaried person or wage earner is income, including salaries, commissions, bonuses, fees, pensions paid retired employees, and tips.

The gross income of the usual business consists of the gross profits on sales, together with income from investments and from incidental or outside operations or sources. The return must show the gross sales, purchases, and cost of goods sold. To reflect net income correctly in any business in which the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor, inventories are necessary at the beginning and end of each taxable year.

The lawyer, doctor, architect, author, dentist, clergyman, or other professional man must include all fees, salaries, and compensation for professional services.

The farmer is required to report as gross income all profits derived from the sale or exchange of farm products and livestock, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold. The fair market value of groceries or merchandise exchanged for farm products must be included, also profits from renting a farm on the crop-share basis, and the rental and sale of farm lands.

What is your Future

WHAT will it be ten years from now? Twenty? Will you have attained your goal or will you have dropped by the wayside? These are interesting questions and are not easy to answer. But one thing is certain: Your decision today to start saving and to make it a habit will do more than any other one thing to put you on the road to success. Start now and stick to it. Regularity and compound interest will do the rest. The view into the future will be clear and pleasant.

Why Worry? Start to Save.

The Paramount

COUNTERFEIT LOVE—With more thrills than the Kentucky Derby is on view today and tomorrow afternoon at this theatre.

Romance, with crooks, adventures, a girl-of-course—and one of the most blood-thirsting horse races we have ever seen on the screen—do make this a splendid bit of entertainment.

The story is too good to give away. Suffice to say that the interest of the audience is keyed up from the opening title to the final fadeout, and there is not a draggy or dull moment throughout.

Charming Marion Swayne plays the leading feminine role, a Southern belle who successfully fights an odds-on-battle against a band of counterfeiters, the leader of whom had almost succeeded in ensnaring her in his coils.

The culmination of a series of thrilling episodes is a big horse race scene which caps the climax to an absorbing photoplay in which the false purveyor of spurious love and spurious money is unmasked. The denouement is startling—and satisfactory.

Norma Lee, Joe King, Jack Richardson, Irene Boyle, Isabel Fisher, Alexander Gille, Danny Haynes, Frances Grant and William Jenkins complete an excellent cast.

The locale of the action is the South, with the picturesque background of a country fair as the scene for the big dramatic climax—a thrilling horse race upon the result of which hangs the fate of the fortune and happiness of the heroine, a belle of Dixie.

Wednesday and Thursday Florence Vidor will be seen in "Alice Adams," a screen version of Booth Tarkington's prize novel.

The Soisson

WHY WORRY? Harold Lloyd's latest comedy today at this theatre for a four day attraction. "The picture is in six reels and is said to be the best in which the famous comedian has ever appeared. The attraction is filled with laughs and the many screen admirers of the comedian are promised an afternoon or evening of delightful entertainment. Friday and Saturday, "You With a Kick" presenting twelve famous comedians, five leading ladies and ten dramatic celebrities will be shown.

The Orpheum

ASHES OF VENGEANCE, a romance of France in the sixteenth century with Norma Talmadge, the famous actress appearing in one of the most fascinating and thrilling roles of her screen career opened today at this theatre for a three day attraction. The colorful atmosphere of France in 1572. Interior and exterior scenes of three different castles. The massive hall room of the Palace of the Louvre, where in suffused excitement 1,200 ladies and gentlemen of the court are dancing on the fatal eve of St. Bartholomew. Sword play ranging from single duels to the mighty clash of great contending forces. Brilliant cavalcades of gaily caparisoned horses and attending men-at-arms moving along the picturesque roads of France—only a few high-lights, these, of the shores of features that make "Ashes of Vengeance" not only the greatest picture of Norma Talmadge's career, but one of the most resplendent ever produced. But it is in the drama itself, the romance of Yolande de Breux and Rupert de Vieux, which is the most appealing feature of the production. These roles are played respectively by Norma Talmadge and Conway Tearle. Twenty screen notables are in the cast of principals in support of this twin, including Wallace Beery, Courtenay Foote, Josephine Crowell, Betty Francisco, Claire McDowell, Andre de Beranger, Murdoch MacQuarrie, Boyd Irwin, Carmen Phillips, Winter Hall, William Clifford, Hector V. Sarno, Earl Schenck, Jimmy Cooley, Lucy Beaumont, Forrest Robinson, Mary McAlister, Kenneth Gibson, Howard Freusdell, Frank Leigh and Little Joanne Carpenter and 4,000 extras are employed in the mob scenes.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "Hell's Hole," with Charles Buck Jones in the stellar role, will be shown.

VIOLA GWYN

By George Barr McCutcheon

Copyright by Dodd, Mead & Company, Inc.

"Would it interest you to know that Mr. Lapelle has engaged in several, with disastrous results to his adventures?"

"I think he has already mentioned something of the kind to me." "I'd sooner be your friend than your enemy, Mr. Gwynne," said the gambler earnestly. "I am a permanent citizen of this town and I have no quarrel with you. As your friend, I am obliged to inform you that Barry Lapelle is a dead shot and as quick as lightning with a pistol. I hope you will take this in the same spirit that it is given."

"I thank you, sir," said Kenneth, courteously. "By the way, do you happen to have a pistol with you at present, Mr. Trentman?"

"The other looked at him keenly for a few seconds before answering. 'I have. I seldom go without one.'"

"If you will do me the kindness to walk with me up to the woods beyond the lake and will grant me the loan of your weapon for half a minute, I think I may be able to demonstrate to you that Mr. Lapelle is not the only dead shot in the world. I was brought up with a pistol in my hand, so to speak. Have you ever tried to shoot a ground squirrel at twenty paces? You have to be pretty quick to do that, you know."

Trentman shook his head. "There's a lot of difference between shooting a ground squirrel and blazing away at a man who is blinding at you at the same time. I'll take your word for the ground squirrel business, Mr. Gwynne, and bid you good day."

"My regrets to your principal and my apologies to you, Mr. Trentman," said Kenneth, lifting his hat.

The gambler raised his own hat. A close observer would have noticed a troubled, anxious gleam in his eye as he turned to retreat. His steps in the direction of the square. It was his custom to saunter slowly when traversing the streets of the town, as one who produces his own importance and enjoys it leisurely. He never hurried. He loitered rather more gracefully when walking than when standing still. But now he strode along briskly—in fact, with such lively decision that for once in his life he appeared actually to be going somewhere. As he rounded the corner and came in sight of the jail, he directed a broad, searching glance upon the barred windows; a quite noticeable scowl settled upon his ordinarily unruffled brow—the scowl of one searching intently, even apprehensively.

He was troubled. His composure was easily disturbed. Kenneth Gwynne had given him something to think about—and the more he thought about it the faster he walked. He was pursuing quite freely and he was a little short of breath when he flung open the door and entered his "den of iniquity" down by the river. He took a glance at the three men seated at a table in a corner of the somewhat commodious "cardroom." One of them was dealing "cold hands" to his companions. A fourth man, his dealer, was leaning against the window frame, gazing pensively down upon the slow-moving river. Two of the men at the table were newcomers in town. They had come up on the River and they had already established themselves in his estimation as "sketchy"; that is, they had been picked pretty clean by "buzards" in other climes before gravitating to his "boneyard." He considered himself a good judge of men, and he did not like the looks of this ill-favored pair. He had made up his mind that he did not want them hanging around the "sketchy"; men of that stripe were just the sort to give the place a bad name. One of them had recalled himself to Barry Lapelle the night before; said he used to work for a trader down south or somewhere.

Without the ceremony of a knock on the door, Mr. Trentman entered a room at the end of the skunk, and there he found Lapelle reclining on a set. Two narrow slits in a puffed expanse of purple grading off to a greenish yellow indicated the position of Barry's eyes. "The one respondent dandy was now a sorry sight."

"Say," began Trentman, after he had closed the door. "I want to know just how things stand with you and Martin Hawk. No beating about the bush, Barry. I want the truth and nothing else."

Barry rubbed himself on one elbow and peered at his host. "What are you driving at, Jack?" he demanded, throatily.

"Are you mixed up with him in this stock-running business?"

"Well, that's a bit of a question to ask."

"It's only a hunch. Are you?"

"Certainly not—and I ought to put a bullet through you for asking such an insulting question."

"He's in jail, charged with stealing sheep and calves, and he's started to talk. Now, look here, Lapelle, I'm your friend, but if you are mixed up in this business the sooner you get out of here the better it will suit me. Wait a minute! I've got more to say. I know you're planning to go down on the boat tomorrow, but I don't believe it's soon enough. I've seen Gwynne. He says in plain English that he won't fight a duel with a horse-tail. He must have some reason for saying that. He has been employed as Moll Hawk's lawyer. She's probably been talking, too. I've been thinking pretty hard the last ten minutes or so, and I'm be-

"WETS" TO HOLD BIG CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON

Hope to Win Doubtful Congressmen to Favor Prohibition Legislation.

PLAN FOR NEXT ELECTION

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14.—A nation-wide drive against dry laws will be inaugurated in Washington on January 21, at a national conference of the Association Against Prohibition Amendment, according to Charles W. Wood of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the association.

The conference will present to the administration and to Congress the demand of the "best elements of American citizenship" from all over the country that the government "face the facts" of the prohibition issue, Wood said.

Delegates from every state in the Union will attend the conference, according to Wood. Plans are now under way for the association to charter a special train to cross the country from coast to coast, picking up delegates. "The aim of the association for 1934 is to obtain what immediate relief is possible from the dangerous situation in which the American people find themselves," Wood said. "The conference in Washington is being held with a view to throwing every possible influence behind a demand upon Congress for immediate legislation which will return to the people of the individual states much of the power which Congress usurped by the passage of the Volstead Act.

"There is hope that the popular revolt against this iniquitous measure will swing sufficient of the doubtful Congressmen over to the side of sanity and that remedial legislation can be obtained the life of the present Congress."

"Whether this hope proves well founded or not, the association will strain every effort to make certain beyond doubt the election next November of a Congress pledged to a liberal modification of the law, whether it be through the votes of the Republicans or Democrats, or both combined."

"When the Volstead Act is modified the efforts of the state divisions of the association will be directed toward securing thorough revision of state laws on the subject which will bring them into conformity with the system in operation in Quebec and in many other parts of Canada."

In reviewing 1933, Wood declared that the advocates of a reform in the prohibition laws have every reason to be encouraged. He touched upon the "wet" victories in Maryland and Kentucky and spoke of the big vote in the Republican primaries of Vermont.

In Pennsylvania, he declared, that Governor Pinchot has suffered a sharp decline in prestige because his "unpopular" stand on the matter of prohibition and "to popular indignation at his willingness to sacrifice vital portions of the constitution in his efforts to enforce prohibition laws by the methods which have been the time of King George the Third."

Two Games Abroad Face Coker Squad This Week; At Latrobe and Norwin

Both contests scheduled in W. P. L. A. League; Neither Greatly Feared

CONFLUENCE SATURDAY

Tomorrow evening the Conneltsville High School basketball team will journey to Latrobe for a game in the W. P. L. A. League. The team at that place faces Conneltsville in its first league contest of the season but the game will be the third in the W. P. L. A. L. schedule for the Cokers. The two previous clashes have resulted in victories and the locals expect to win again tomorrow.

It was refreshing to the Orange and Black team to learn that C. H. Wine, coach here last year and now located at the Latrobe High School, is now coaching the basketball outfit there. The Cokers have considerable respect for Mr. Wine's ability at turning out floor quintets and the fact that he is now handling the Latrobe team lessens their fear of an impregnable defense.

The boys will have a practice session this afternoon to wear off the rough edges and will be all set to do battle to the final whistle tomorrow. Another victory tomorrow night will be a nice start towards the top of the league in Section 3.

Of Interest to Fans

High School plays two games away from home this week, the other being Friday evening at Norwin. That clash is also scheduled in the W. P. L. A. League but advance information is that the Orange and Black crew stands a fine chance for better than an even break.

Comparative scores show that Youngwood lost by a wide margin to Elkhorn recently, scoring only eight points in the entire clash, while later Latrobe had a hard time defeating the same team. The facts do not point to such a strong combination for Latrobe.

NELSON'S GIRLS WILL OPEN WITH CAPSTAN TUESDAY

Nelson's Girls' basketball team, which last season was conceded the girls' championship of the coke region, is now ready to defend the laurels won.

A challenge has been issued to all girl teams in this section of the state, playing boys' rules, for games both at home and abroad. Their opening game will be played Tuesday night when they meet the Capstan Glass Girls, at the Armory, preliminary to the Capstan-Kokichers game. These games are to be two of the features of the program put on for the Capstan-Salmen's Convention.

Wednesday night the Perryopolis High School Teachers will oppose the Nelson Girls, also at the Armory. Last year the Perry maidens won over the local five, then playing under the name of Kokichers, so that on Wednesday night the local lassies will put forth every effort to wipe out the sting of that defeat. The team this year has been strengthened fifty per cent and has recently two more star players have been acquired.

Many of the best girl teams this section are being booked for games here. Among them are the Golden Girls of Johnstown, the Harrold Garage Girls of Greensburg, Cokesburg Girls Five, the Youngwood Fals, Jeannette Girls Club, and the New Alexandria Independent Girls team.

A photographic reproduction of the team will be found elsewhere on this page.

THIS is the first in a series of thrift events which are to keep you interested all this week. A clearance of quality shoes, in which practically every member of the family can find good stout footwear for winter days selling, in most cases, for less than half its original price.

54 Pairs Men's Shoes $2.45

Odds and ends of shoes in cordovan, calf and vic kid. Not every size in every style but all sizes—5½ to 11—in the group. $8 to $10 values. No approvals, exchanges, refunds.

86 Pairs For Men $3.95

Shoes and oxfords being cleared out because sizes are broken in the different styles—although there are all sizes—5½ to 11—in this group. In black and tan—lasts that are both good looking and comfortable. $10 to $15 values—at $3.95!

125 Pairs For Women $1.85

When you consider that these shoes have sold for as much as $12 to $15—and that they can now be had for $1.85—you gain some idea of what a phenomenal offering this is! Their only fault is that they have Spanish heels—in leather and workmanship each pair is perfect.

94 Pairs Oxfords $4.35

If tan oxfords and a smart pair of wool stockings appeal to you as a sensible solution of the problem what to wear in winter—you should hurry in to get a pair of these. Blucher and plain lace styles, with ball strap and plain tip. In calf or Norwegian leather—low walking heels.

196 Pairs Women's Shoes $4.85

Just as comfortable and as good-looking a shoe as you could hope to find—at a saving that is nothing short of tremendous. In tan calf or kid, Cuban and military heels. Some Arch Preservers included.

32 Pairs Strap Pumps $5.45

Broken sizes in patent and satin—pumps that will serve for dress wear, if you can find a fit. With neat turn or welt soles. Thirty two pairs only—that have formerly sold for as much as $10. Best selection goes to the early comers!

Shoes For Children $2.35

High jockey boots with patent vamp and grey top or tan vamp and champagne tip. If you think them too high a cobbler can readily remove the collar and these shoes will be just right. Children's sizes—5½ to 11—$2.35. Misses' size $3.35. No approvals—exchanges—refunds.

19 Pairs Baby Shoes $1.00

All-leather infants' shoes in patent and black kid. A button style that has been a favorite with mothers. Sizes available run 2 to 4. A type of shoe that has heretofore been selling for $2.50—you can readily see how much you're invited to save. Come early!
